Mt. Vernon, June 11—Delegates to the Fifth Judicial convention began to arrive yesterday afternoon, and long before 10 o'clock this morning the Curtis House presented a busy scene of activity upon the arrival of the first of the candidates for Circuit judge.

Judge John David Jones, Licking county's candidate, was early on the ground with the majority of the Licking delegates, the remainder having arrived this morning.

Judge Jones is conceded to be the strongest candidate in the fight, with Judge R. M. Voorhees of Coshocton second. The other candidates are Judge R. M. Campbell of Ashland, Wellington Stilwell of Holmes, Judge M. C. Ream of Tuscarawas.

Two candidates are to be nominated, one for a short term, November, 1908, to February, 1909, and the other for February for six years.

The present Circuit court judges are Donahue, Taggart and Crane. Judge Crane was appointed at the resignation of Judge McCarty.

At 10 o'clock the delegates assembled in the court house and Hon. L. B. Houck called for order, and H. H. Harlan of Morrow county was appointed temporary chairman.

After the 30 minute recess the temporary organization was made permanent, resolutions endorsing the state ticket and platform were adopted.

The judicial committee appointed Judge Brister chairman of that committee, and J. C. Marriott secretary of the Licking delegation.

The nomination speeches were limited to five minutes, nominations being made for the long term, five candidates being named in the nomination.

Phil Smythe in a brilliant and forceful speech captured the convention in the presentation of the name of Judge Jones as the Licking county candidate.

Mr. Smythe's address was received with prolonged applause.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Judge Campbell, Ashland 1, Delaware 2, Fairfield 2, Knox 2, Morrow 5, Muskingum 3, Perry 1, Richland 7, Stark 4, Wayne 1.

Judge Voorhees: Coshocton 8, Delaware 2, Fairfield 2, Knox 1, Morgan 4, Muskingum 2, Richland 1, Stark 4, Wayne 2.

At 12 o'clock the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock.

Mt. Vernon, Ohio, June 11—(2:30 p. m.)—On the sixteenth ballot this afternoon Judge J. D. Jones came within two votes of being nominated, when 70 delegates voted for him.

While an effort was being made to get one delegation to change its vote, the clerk commenced calling the roll.

On the eighteenth ballot, just concluded there was no choice.

On the fourteenth Judge Jones received 43 votes, Judge Campbell 26, Judge Stilwell 19, Judge Ream 20, Judge Voorhees 27, Judge Wickham 8. Atlee Pomerene, Judge Douglass and Judge Wickham received votes on the thirteenth, but Mr. Pomerene addressed the convention and announced that under no circumstances was he a candidate, and requested his friends to refrain from giving him support for the nomination.

Mt. Vernon, June 11—(3 p. m.)—Judge R. W. Voorhees was nominated for the six year term for Circuit judge on the 22d ballot.

Robert Shields of Stark county, was nominated for the short term on the first ballot.

On the 22d ballot both Delaware and Fairfield counties cast their votes for Voorhees, making a total of 72, and he was declared nominated.

For the short term S. M. Winn of Zanesville, and Robert Shields were presented, which resulted in the nomination of Mr. Shields. Mr. Shields had 51 1-2 and Mr. Winn 61 1-2.

TORTURES INFLECTED

ON PATIENTS AT MASSILLON HOSPITAL WERE OF MEDICAL CHARACTER.

According to Testimony of Former Patient Creates Great Sensation at Board Meeting.

Massillon, Ohio, June 11.—The real sensation of the investigation by the committee of the charges of cruelty in connection with the care of patients at the Massillon State hospital, was sprung when John H. Low of Steubenville, who said he was a patient in the hospital in 1906, testified that he saw inmates of the institution beaten and tramped upon by attendants and other patients.

Mr. Low said that in one case death occurred the day after the patient had been abused. He mentioned the names of three patients who were brutally treated. He said:

"I saw a patient named Walter thrown down on the hospital ward floor and jumped on by the attendant because he would not eat his meal. The attendant tried to force the food between his teeth. They tried to run a rubber tube into his nose. When the attendant got him down on the flat of his back he got a patient to help him. They abused the patients terribly while I was there."

Asked for a more definite description, the witness said the attendant got Walters down and put his knees on his chest and tried to make him eat. The attendant struck him in the face with his fist. He said there was one old man from Dillonvale, a patient, who abused other patients.

Low told of a patient named Clarence Mitchell, of Youngstown, who, he said, was knocked down and tramped upon in an effort to induce him to eat.

The attendants would put on strait-jackets and take them off when the doctor came around. He was in a frightful condition when he left here. The attendants would shove Mitchell back in bed and hit him terrible blows.

Day and night sessions are being held.

Canton, June 11.—That the Massillon State hospital will be cleared in the case of John Adams, of Beach City, was intimated by members of the state board of charities after a discussion of all the testimony Thursday. Said member R. H. Platt, "we will file our formal findings with the governor within ten days."

DYING

Like an Echo is Clamor of Allied Opposition

TAFT STILL GAINING

And His Nomination is Now Beyond All Doubt

Certain Party Leaders Prefer Taft and Defeat to Roosevelt and Victory.

Chicago, June 11.—Dying like an echo in the hills, the clamor of the allied opposition to the nomination of Secretary of War William H. Taft can be scarcely detected.

It is useless to further speculate upon what might happen. Nothing within the ken of human knowledge can prevent what is now universally accepted as the inevitable Taft will be nominated.

Steadily pursuing their purpose of securing as many votes as possible, the Taft managers yesterday reaped a harvest before the National Republican committee. It was not only votes that they secured, but advantageous position as well. Through their victory in the St. Louis districts Governor Charles Hughes of New York, was deprived of the only support that he had in the convention outside of his own state. He must, therefore, come to the convention with a divided following as it is known that all of the New York delegates are not for his nomination.

Through the seating of Lewis Emery in the Pennsylvania delegation Senator Philander C. Knox is placed in the same attitude. The defeat of Senator-elect W. O. Bradley in the Kentucky contest leaves Vice President Fairbanks with practically only Indiana behind him. In Illinois two of the delegates are instructed for Taft, thus breaking Cannon's state.

By carrying three Ohio districts, and dividing a fourth, Senator Joseph Benson Foraker's following in that state reaches an almost intangible minimum. It is true that there are stories that in some of the uninstructed delegations from the Southern states there are Fairbanks and Foraker men, but they are just as likely to be for Taft, now that the result is assured.

Now come the inevitable rumors of withdrawals. First of them is that relating to Governor Hughes of New York. Side by side with it is the denial of his manager here, A. B. Humphreys. It is certain that Fairbanks, LaFollette, Cannon and Knox will go on to the end, knowing exactly what will be found there. Their states are instructed for them, and the delegates can do nothing else but to follow the orders of the conventions.

Yesterday former Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin, wanted upon United States Senator Charles Dick of Ohio, and urged upon him the advisability of having his colleague, Senator Foraker, withdraw from the contest and request that his name not be presented to the convention. Senator Spooner is one of those who would Secretary Taft nominated in order to prevent the renomination of Roosevelt.

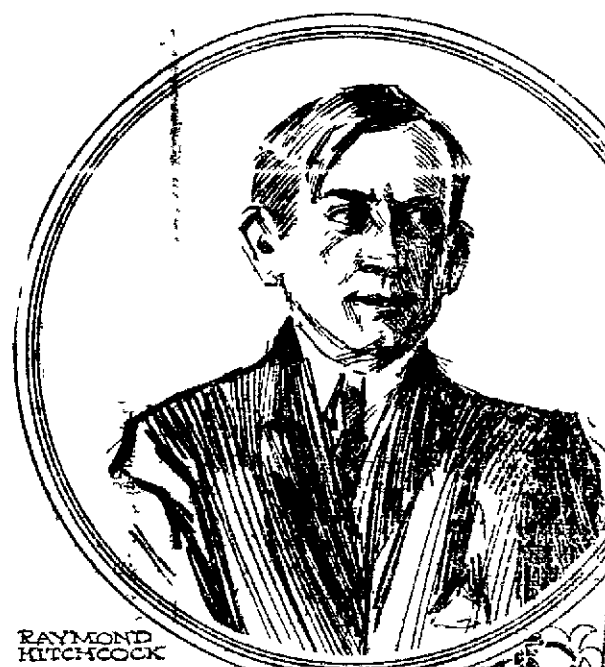

His advice and his arguments were listened to by Senator Dick and no doubt will be taken up with his senior colleague. This is the game of the federated opponents to Roosevelt. At the conference held at the Union League club, when the platform was discussed, this question was raised:

Shall we accept Taft and possible defeat or Roosevelt and assured victory?

The decision was for Taft whatever the consequences might be. Days ago it was announced that this was the strategy that Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts, was playing. It developed when he stopped the threatened voting by contestants of the National committee by pointing out that this merely meant the opening of a way to a Roosevelt stampede. Everything that has occurred within the past 48 hours strengthens and confirms this assertion. Prompted by entirely different motives it fits exactly into the tactics of the Taft organization.

These men are striving earnestly to prevent a stampede. They are get-

PRINCIPALS IN TRIAL OF RAYMOND HITCHCOCK, ACQUITTED TODAY

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK

THOMAS M. OSBORNE

New York, June 11.—After twice returning into court to ask instructions, the jury at 3 o'clock this morning acquitted Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, of the charges brought against him by Helen Von Hagen.

When the trial was resumed Wednesday every seat in the court room was filled and several hundred persons had been turned away. Mrs. Hitchcock was one of the early arrivals. She was accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Buckmeister, and Flora Whiston, one of the original complainants against the actor. Miss Whiston confessed at a previous trial that she had testified falsely when she accused Hitchcock.

Mrs. Von Hagen, mother of the state's complaining witness, was called by the defense, and testified that her daughter had told her that there was nothing wrong in her relations with Hitchcock.

Mrs. Von Hagen said she saw her daughter in the office of Assistant District Attorney Garvin, where Helen told her that she had to say the things the people in "the society" told her to say or it would result in the mother getting into trouble.

Herman H. Rupke, Mr. Hitchcock's valet, testified that Helen Von Hagen and Elsie VoECKs were taken to their homes on the night of their first visit to the Hitchcock home in Great Neck. A few nights later the witness found the girls in Mr. Hitchcock's house again, and Mr. Hitchcock said he would send them back to New York. There were no trains going to the city that night, and by Mr. Hitchcock's instructions the valet gave them a room in the house, and they were sent home in the morning.

MOONSHINERS ABDUCT BRIDE OF TWO MONTHS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Husband is Frantic and Posse Has Gone to Mountains in Search of the Woman.

Greenville, S. C., June 11.—W. F. Burns of Macon county, North Carolina, a bridegroom of two months, was in Greenville in a state of nervous collapse, and related to the officers the details of a harrowing experience in Painter mountain, where with his wife he stopped all night in a cabin in a region where the moonshiners have long been supreme.

The room occupied by himself and his bride was forcibly entered by half a dozen masked men, several of whom forcibly subjugated him, while the others, after going through his clothing and relieving him of all of his valuables, forced the bride to dress and accompany them from the room. The frantic husband hung about the neighborhood for three days in hopes of learning something regarding the whereabouts of his wife.

A posse has gone to the mountains for the purpose of rescuing the woman.

MOTHER

Used Slipper on Son's Anatomy in the Court Room While the Boy Howled With Pain.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 11.—Angered at the conduct of her 16 year old son who had violated a city ordinance, Mrs. Josephine Sobert grasped her young hopeful in the court room, before the magistrate and officers, and, removing her slipper from her foot, laid the boy across her knee and amid applause from the court attaches, gave him one of the old time whalloppings "like mother used to do." The boy howled and blubbered at the punishment which he felt more than the five dollar fine, 10 days in jail, imposed by Magistrate England. The mother, a hard working Polish woman, paid the fine before inflicting the punishment, and amid the jeers and laughs of the magistrate and officials the boy slunk out of the room. Sobert had been arrested for breaking windows.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 11.—Reluctant admissions made by the post-office officials of three cities confirm the belief that the disappearance of a registered mail pouch somewhere within the jurisdiction of the Kansas City, Mo., postoffice last Saturday night, will prove one of the biggest hauls in the history of the postoffice department.

From private sources it was learned that a package of at least $30,000 in currency was among the contents of the pouch, which carried an unusually large number of letters and packages, containing money and other valuables.

The pouch was in transit from this city to New York. The postal inspectors refuse to tell it was lost. That a pouch of value has disappeared was admitted by the department at Washington by Postmaster M. H. Flint, of Los Angeles, and by Inspector W. J. Vickery, attached to the Kansas City postoffice, who appears to have the case for investigation.

Postmaster Flint admitted that he had been notified of the loss, adding that the responsibility of the postoffice for its delivery ended when it was locked in the presence of witnesses by the registry clerk and delivered to the railway postal employees.

Charles Seyler, cashier of Farmers and Merchants' National bank, of this city, said:

"According to our information a mail pouch, made up here on June 3 and leaving for New York on the following morning, has disappeared. A conservative valuation of the currency contents furnished by this and other banks of this city, will be $50,000.

"The missing funds were placed in the postoffice the evening of June 3. Their destination was New York City, our correspondent there being the Chemical National bank, to whom our portion of the shipment was consigned."

It is admitted that the registered pouch that has disappeared left here over the Santa Fe railroad the morning of June 4, and was due in Kansas City on Saturday.

CAMPAIGN BY THE PEOPLE

To Secure Adoption of Proposed Amendments to Ohio's Constitution.

TAXATION QUESTION IMPORTANT

State Board of Commerce Starts Movement to Make Ohio the Best State in the Union in Which to Earn a Living, to Operate a Business, to Own Property—How Campaign Is to Be Conducted and Why Every Voter Should Cast His Ballot in Favor of the Amendments.

The General Assembly has submitted to the voters for adoption at the election to be held Nov. 3, 1908, three amendments to the State Constitution, the adoption of each of which is of vital importance to the progress, prosperity and common good of all the people of Ohio.

PURPOSE OF AMENDMENTS.

The purpose of these amendments is as follows:

1. To permit the passage of a bill over the Governor's veto by a vote of two-thirds of the members-elect of the General Assembly.

Explanation: As the constitution now stands a bill to be passed over the Governor's veto must receive not less than the same number of votes it received on its original passage. Under this rule the loss of one vote would prevent the passage of a bill over the Governor's veto.

2. To fix the date for convening the regular sessions of each General Assembly on the first Monday in January next after it is elected.

Explanation: The constitution now provides that the members of the General Assembly shall be elected in the even-numbered years and that the regular session shall convene on the first Monday in January in the even-numbered years. If the pending amendment is not adopted the General Assembly elected in November, 1908, will have to be convened in extraordinary session in January, 1909, for the purpose of electing a United States senator to succeed Senator Joseph B. Foraker, whose term expires March 4, 1909. It will also have to be convened in regular session in 1910, as required by the constitutional provision it is sought to amend.

A new General Assembly will be elected in November, 1910. That General Assembly will have to be convened in extraordinary session in January, 1911, for the purpose of electing a United States senator to succeed Senator Charles Dick, whose term expires March 4, 1911. It will also have to be convened in regular session in 1912 as required by the constitutional provision it is sought to amend.

There will be a session of the General Assembly in 1909, 1910, 1911 and 1912 unless the pending constitutional amendment is adopted. If it is adopted the sessions in 1910 and 1912 can be avoided. The expense of these sessions will be saved for the taxpayers. The people of the state will secure a corresponding rest from the many distractions incident to a session of the General Assembly.

3. To classify the subjects of taxation in order to secure a just return from each.

Explanation: This amendment does not make it necessary to change any law now on the statute books. It does not grant any authority for the exemption of any property now taxable. It provides the only way in which the demand for the taxation of public bonds now exempt may be satisfied. It provides the only way in which greater equality in the burdens of taxation can be secured; the only way by means of which methods can be devised to obtain a just return from the owners of franchises, stocks, bonds and other intangible property.

Its real purpose is to give power to the General Assembly to revise the laws of the state as changes in conditions, experience and reason may from time to time show to be necessary for the promotion of the general welfare.

This amendment was drafted and proposed by the tax commission appointed by Governor Harris to investigate the subject of state and local taxation in Ohio. In transmitting this report to the General Assembly, Governor Andrew L. Harris endorsed its recommendations in the following words:

"I heartily endorse the recommendations made by the commission and especially its proposed amendment to Article XII, Section 2 of the Constitution."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS DEFEATED BY NEGLECT TO VOTE ON PROPOSITION.

Under the provisions of the Constitution, all electors who neglect to vote for a constitutional amendment are counted as having voted against it. Owing to this neglect, four proposed taxation constitutional amendments have been defeated.

MAJORITY OF ALL VOTES CAST AT THE ELECTION REQUIRED.

The Constitution requires that a constitutional amendment, to be adopted, must receive an affirmative majority of all the votes cast at the election. This being a presidential year, the total vote will be unusually large. The majority required to secure such adoption of the pending constitutional amendments will be correspondingly increased.

THE LONGWORTH LAW.

In 1902 the Longworth law was enacted authorizing the placing of constitutional amendments in the party column on the official ballot, as a part of the party ticket. By means of this device five amendments were adopted in 1902 and two in 1905, all straight party votes being counted for these amendments. On account of the ease with which the Constitution has been amended with this device, a widespread and determined demand for its repeal of the Longworth law has been initiated by the Ohio State Grange and advocated enthusiastically by its members and many others who rightly believe the Constitution should be amended only by the deliberate affirmative action of a majority of all electors voting at an election.

Believing the fundamental purpose of the people of the state is to make Ohio the best state in the Union in which to earn a living, to operate a business and to own property; knowing the character of the pending constitutional amendments will commend them to the electors as being absolutely essential to the realization of this fundamental purpose; having full faith in the sound common sense of the people; not wishing to aid the adoption of any constitutional amendment that can not be carried on its merits; and believing the State Grange to be right in its contention on this point, the Ohio State Board of Commerce favored the repeal of the Longworth law.

THE PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN.

The Ohio State Board of Commerce is organizing "The People's Campaign" to secure the adoption of the pending constitutional amendments.

Its plan of organization is as follows:

1. A local committee will be organized at the county seat of each county to undertake organized campaign work throughout the county. This committee will employ a county manager to devote his entire time to carrying out its plans.

2. A township or ward committee will be organized in each township and city ward to interest and instruct electors by organizing subcommittees in every precinct.

3. Every elector will be called upon to enroll himself as an associate in "The People's Campaign" to secure the adoption of the pending constitutional amendments.

4. A county committee, representing all townships, villages and cities, and all vocations, will be organized in each county as soon as the work has been sufficiently developed to give it the required constituency.

5. All organizations of citizens in each county, for whatever purpose organized, will be invited to co-operate in this movement by adopting resolutions approving the pending constitutional amendments, and urging its members to work for the enrollment of all electors as associates in "The People's Campaign" to secure their adoption by the people at the November election.

6. The campaign fund required for each county is estimated at only ten cents per elector, in addition to the amount required for the salary and expenses of the county manager. Each local committee will raise and disburse its own fund, paying therefrom all expenses of the campaign incurred in its own county, including a small contribution to a general campaign fund for the state.

COMMON SENSE AND PUBLIC SPIRIT.

"The People's Campaign" to secure the adoption of the pending constitutional amendments is designed to secure a true expression of opinion from all of the people.

It is based on the principle that constitutional amendments, when submitted to the electors of the state by the General Assembly, should be adopted or rejected by a majority of all votes cast at the election. It is the side partner of no political party.

It is controlled by no class or special interest.

It is for the benefit of all of the people and is entitled to their enthusiastic co-operation and support.

It calls upon each elector to do his individual share, with a surplus margin sufficient to make good any shortage resulting from the failure of others to do their share.

FOR THE GENERAL BENEFIT OF EVERY ONE—FOR THE SPECIAL BENEFIT OF NO ONE.

To assure the people of Ohio that all taxation legislation hereafter enacted will be well considered, conservative, free from dictation by any class interests, and intelligently devised for the common good, the Ohio State Board of Commerce pledges itself, when the taxation constitutional amendment has been adopted by the people, to favor the creation of a permanent expert, nonpartisan tax commission, whose duty it shall be carefully to study and investigate all suggestions for the improvement of our tax laws, so that the General Assembly may be governed largely by the recommendations of such commission when enacting tax laws, to the end that the people of Ohio may enjoy all benefits derivable from the best system of state and local taxation that can be devised for present-day conditions.

EVADING TAXATION.

Our deposits dropped from $74,000 to $31,000. About one-third was invested in non-taxable bonds and the balance was hoarded or hidden.—Banker.

PICTURES AT AUDITORIUM.

The idea of converting the magnificent Auditorium into a mammoth moving picture house for the past few weeks has attracted wide attention from the citizens of Newark. Mr. Graham, the new manager, has unquestionably spent considerable time in gathering material for the entertainment that he is now presenting and with a fair share of patronage he promises many new and additional features. The pictures this week are remarkable for their truthfulness to nature, one especially being a romance full of love and intrigue and is portrayed in a succession of very pretty scenes. It is one of the most beautiful pictures ever seen in Newark. In a speech last evening Mr. Graham said he was preparing to give the people a vaudeville act in addition to the pictures. Four shows are given daily, and the performance runs an hour and a half. The entertainment is well worth seeing and should draw crowds to the Auditorium all summer.

SERIES OF MEETING

BEING HELD IN CHICAGO IN EFFORT TO SAVE LIFE OF HERMAN BILLIK.

Petition Signed by 15,000 Persons Urging Commutation to Life Imprisonment.

Chicago, June 11.—The most remarkable demonstration in behalf of men condemned to die on the gallows began today when a series of meetings throughout the city was held to arouse public sentiment in favor of Herman Billik, necromancer and fortune teller, sentenced to be hanged tomorrow.

Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, who has fought for Billik's life for months, will be the principal speaker. Father O'Callaghan today mailed to Governor Deneen a petition signed by 15,000 persons urging the governor to commute Billik's sentence to life imprisonment.

Today Federal Judge Landis will pass on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed yesterday. It is generally believed the writ will be refused. At the same time the State Supreme court today refused a petition filed with that tribunal yesterday to vacate its action affirming the action of the lower court.

In the event that Judge Landis refuses the writ, it is believed a hasty appeal to the United States Supreme court will be taken.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, O., June 11.—The Iron Trade Review today says:

The iron and steel industry has reached the most interesting stage of the present depression. The atmosphere has been surcharged with a spirit of expectancy, confined not merely to buyers looking for price concessions, but also to sellers deeply concerned as to seeing what course would be adopted at the New York meeting. It is too early to predict the effect of the new schedule on the market, but there is abundant ground for reasonable hopes of improvement in demand.

Pig iron shows greater strength than at any stage of the present advance. Buying has continued longer in the face of the increased price and in much greater volume than was anticipated, and although the total tonnage placed last week was perhaps slightly less than during the preceding week, a very encouraging quantity of iron both northern and southern, was bought and inquiry is still coming in freely.

Is caused by stagnation of the liver and bowels. To get rid of it and headache and biliousness and the poison that brings jaundice, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, the reliable purifiers that do the work without grinding or griping. 25c. at F. D. Hall's drug store.

GIRLS

HID IN SHRUBBERY WHILE ESCORTS PLUNGED INTO THE WATER.

And Recovered Silver Purse Which Had Been Dropped Into the Lake.

Richmond, Va., June 11.—The unusual sight of two pretty girls hiding in the shrubbery, while their gallants stripped of their clothing, dived into the depths of the lake for the purpose of recovering a silver pocket-book which one of the girls had dropped when stepping from one boat to another, was witnessed by the men officials at Lakeside park.

Miss Jenny May Boice and a young woman who is visiting here were the heroines of the occasion. M. B. Dawes and James Perry, well known young men, were informed by the girls, who are their sweethearts, of the loss of the pretty bauble.

The young men requested the girls to retire to the shrubbery. They then disrobed and plunged into the lake, recovering the trinket within half an hour.

Owing to instructions in the will of W. W. Wilson, auctioneer, Southend-on-Sea, England, his favorite pony followed him to the grave and was shot at Billericay.

The mean height of all land now above the sea is referred to by Lynd as being 1,000 feet. The mean depth of the ocean is at least 12,000 feet.

An ancient font, removed years ago from St. James' parish church, South Ireland, has been discovered in use as a flower pot and replaced in the church.

INCREASING THE CIRCULATION.

[Original.]

When I established the Press the place in which I located was a far western town, now a middle western city. I am now at one end of life. I was then at the other. In those days editors were wont to stir up an interest in their papers by attacking some one. I was young enough and reckless enough to adopt the plan in vogue. I was obliged to adopt some method of selling my paper or it would have shrunk to nothingness, but I was very successful in carrying the consequences. When I attacked a man and he came into the office of the Press for blood I told him that we—I invariably used the editorial plural—had based our allegations on the best information. Then when he demanded the name of "our" informant "we" promised to give it after consultation with said informant in case he determined to face the consequences. If he refused, then we would publish a denial, with an explanation. This usually staved the matter off for a day or two, when "we" published a statement that "we" had been grossly imposed upon. I don't know which helped the paper most, the excitement attending the accusation or the frank and manly manner in which we made the amende honorable.

Operating as I was in civil war time, when everybody was intensely peevish, it is a wonder that I escaped some of my advertising episodes with my life. Indeed, I finally made such a stir in a certain instance that I was obliged to move my paper to a new location, though in the case I mention I had no intention of attacking any one. I merely perpetrated what I considered a witticism. A certain Colonel N. had at the request of his fellow citizens resigned his command to come home and make a political campaign. Referring to him in an item, I quoted:

Grim visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front, and now instead of mounting barbed steeds to fright the souls of fearful adversaries he capers nimbly in a lady's chamber.

The idea I intended to convey was that the colonel would have a very different time between bullets and ballots. Unfortunately he was not familiar with the poets and knew nothing of Shakespeare. He doubtless had a guilty conscience with reference to some fair dame and inferred that it was to this that the Press referred.

There was also a certain dancing master in the town, Demaise Robitaille, upon whom I happened to perpetrate at the same time another so called bon-mot. I referred to him as M. Robitail. The morning that these two items came out in my paper I was sitting in my sanctum getting together material for my next day's issue. I had had a troubled week with the people I had used to advertise the paper and had determined to advertise no more in that way. It was proving hazardous. I therefore felt very much at ease with myself and all the world. As to Colonel N. or Demaise Robitaille, I was not conscious of having insulted either of them. Hearing a step behind me, I turned and saw the warrior advancing upon me. In his eye was a blood-thirsty look I had never seen in any man's eye before.

"Give me the name of the man who has accused me of being mixed up in a woman's scrape," he said, doubtless referring to his "capering nimbly in a lady's chamber."

But, like Linden in the poem, "I saw another sight" Demaise Robitaille was really "capering" up the staircase and dancing into the sanctum behind the colonel. It was a cowardly trick on my part, I admit, but what is a fellow to do when a sledge hammer fist of a 200 pound warrior is about to come down upon him? I pointed to Robitaille.

"So you're the cur who wrote that rot about an ex-colonel of the army and a candidate for the votes of his fellow citizens, accusing him of flouncing around in a woman's room."

"I? I write article about you? Non, monsieur. I come here to demand!"

"You lie, you French monkey! You're just the man to do a trick like that."

The colonel landed a blow on the Frenchman's jaw. Robitaille got the idea that his assailant was the man he had come to the office to punish and that the accusation was merely a pretext to get in a first punishment.

"Tuh! By Gar!" he shrieked. "I teach you to call me names." He was an expert boxer and, dancing up to the colonel, landed a blow on his nose that spilled claret over the warrior's shirt front. I got up on the inclined board on which I had been grinding out copy for the purpose of watching the fight without personal injury to myself. It was a pretty instance of science against mere strength. The Frenchman would have landed a lightning blow, then lance out of reach of his powerful antagonist. The fact that each believed that the other was the man who had lampooned him made the fight far more interesting. I was young enough to enjoy it and silly enough not to realize the detriment to myself in case one of the combatants killed the other. At last science won. The dancing master felled the warrior, who in falling struck his head against a wood column that held up the ceiling of my sanctum.

The next day I was waited on by a committee of citizens, the spokesmen of which:

"Younke we don't keer so much about your 'ackin' at the men, but th' accusin' 'em of caperin' in the women's rooms is an affront to the virtue of our wives and daughters. You better move on to a place where the people are less sensitive."

And I moved. F. A. MITCHELL.

RACING KILLED

IN NEW YORK STATE AND GOVERNOR HUGHES SCORES A GREAT VICTORY.

Senator Foelker Kidnaped From Sick Bed to Prevent Him Voting for the Measure.

Albany, June 11.—After hours of uncertainty the senate this afternoon passed the Agnew Hart anti-race track gambling bills by a vote of 26 to 25. With the passage of the bills came the victory in a vigorous campaign which Governor Hughes inaugurated early this year. The bills now go to him for his approval. The feature of the contest was an effort made this morning by enemies of the bills to kidnap Senator Foelker and prevent him voting for the measure. He had risen from a sick bed to support them. The senate immediately adjourned without delay making reconsideration impossible. The bills go into effect at once and are expected to kill races in New York state.

A Talk on Olive Oil

SOME INSIDE FACTS, NOT GENERALLY KNOWN, BUT INTERESTING. "PURE" is usually supposed to describe the highest quality of OLIVE OIL, but such is by no means always true. Without exception, the oil imported here is the second, and more often the third pressing—which though pure, is very much inferior to the first expressed.

The best article obtainable in this market is the California product, THE SYLMAR BRAND. This oil is obtained entirely from the first pressing of the fruit, and is not only strictly pure, but of the very highest MEDICAL quality, and is also entirely palatable. We supply this article at the price usually charged for ordinary grades, and will be pleased to have our friends compare it with any other product.

A WORD TO THE IMPROVIDENT

Every summer we read of fatal accidents occurring on river and sea— inexperienced boating parties going out without competent rowers or sailing masters, capsizings, collisions and all sorts of marine tragedies. And every summer we read of deaths by sunstroke, on railroads, in autos, and a score of other ways in which the grim visitor seizes humanity suddenly. And when we read of the untimely death of some friend and acquaintance, one of the first questions we usually ask it, "Was he insured?"

Would it not be just as well to bring this question right home to the living—say, to ourselves—once in awhile and ponder over its very weighty importance. Are we insured? Are our friends, relatives and acquaintances insured? If not, why not? It is really a terrible thing—not for the one taken away so suddenly, as for the unprovided-for left behind. Life insurance is a duty that every individual owes to his family. The time to think about it—to take out a policy—is while one is healthy and alive. It will be too late when you are sick or dead. Baugher & McQuider are issuing policies in one of the best and most reliable companies, and they will be glad to talk the subject over with you, and point out the way to get the best policy.

THE NEW TRUST-BUSTING.
(New York World.)
By agreement the steel manufacturers are preparing to reduce prices except on steel rails. Obviously they have been maintaining prices in the face of a falling demand and still intend to maintain them on steel rails by express agreement. As a matter of fact no denial is made of their frequent conferences or their general policy.
This is a combination in restraint of trade. But the associated steel manufacturers, as they are called, are both sheltered by a prohibitory tariff and exempted from official attack by the fitful enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust act. The Steel Trust was relieved of all fears when it wanted to take possession of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company during the panic last fall. It sent Judge Gary and Henry C. Frick to consult Mr. Roosevelt in the White House and he considerably gave his sanction to the deal.
After that why should the Steel Trust, or any of its supposed competitors expect to be molested for arranging by common consent to raise or lower prices? Other trusts that have been brought to bar for entering into combinations in restraint of trade, may object, but not the Steel Trust. Where the others failed was in not securing executive immunity against prosecution.
Having granted an informal license to the Steel Trust Mr. Roosevelt still clings to his notion of issuing federal licenses to such corporations as meet executive approval according to the Cive Federation plan. Although Congress refused to have anything to do with it last session, he expects the Republicans to embody it in the platform at Chicago. One thing is certain—with a tariff-revision plank advocating absolute powers for the executive in discriminating among corporations, it should be a simple matter to finance the Republican campaign.

AT THE SEASHORE.
They were at Atlantic City for a week or two's vacation, the children said it was the finest place in all creation; Mr. was delighted, 'twas the first time in his life, he'd enjoyed a summer outing with his children and his wife. The weather was delightful and the ocean seemed alive with the many hundred bathers—it just made one want to dive. But the thought that came to Mrs. To make her pleasure real, was the picture of their coming home, the comfort she would feel. For the house from top to bottom had been cleaned the month before, with Spartan Stain she'd finished all the woodwork, every floor was bright and new and polished, and there'd be no work to do, so she really was enjoying an experience quite new. Spartan Stain used on old floors and woodwork makes them like new and easy to keep clean. Made by the Marietta Paint and Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by Newark Paint Co., 31 West Church St.

MUST PROCURE STATE LICENSE
Today the new Ward automobile law goes into effect, and it will be unlawful to operate an auto vehicle on any street or road in the state from and after that date unless a license has been paid, and a tag number be displayed on it according to the provisions of the law. But no one will be able to meet the latter requirement of the law for the reason that the secretary of state has not yet been able to secure from the contractor any of the number tags provided for. In order that no one may suffer an injustice, Colonel Thompson has prepared a circular letter, a copy of which will be placed in the hands of each person who has paid for a license and been assigned a number. It authorizes the owner to prepare a tag of his own design, to bear the number assigned, and to be good for 30 days from date. Exhibited to any officer attempting to make an arrest it will give the holder an immunity bath for the time.

THOUGHTS FOR THE TABLE
In the hot weather guess are perhaps not so numerous, but it is much more difficult to cater for them, especially in the matter of fresh meats. The wisest way is that we should not eat so much meat in the summer season, but where is the man or woman who is not susceptible to a nice roast of beef, a juicy leg of lamb, or a nicely browned chicken—no matter how hot the weather is? When all is said and done, the succulent steak and tempting chops are much more appreciated by the average appetite than any number of cereals or salads.
Of course, this statement should be qualified. We presuppose that the food for tender meats of all kinds and varied, and properly cooked, without which conditions it might be just as well to adhere to the cereals and salads. Tough and tasteless meat is a good thing to be avoided anywhere and at any season. It is horrible in the summer time. Dupler's meat market has built up a great reputation for all of good quality, finely flared meat is most delicious nowadays. Their beef, mutton, lamb, veal, fowl, hams and bacon leave nothing to be desired by the epicure, and their meat has so little waste that it is really a saving to buy there.

WILL YOUR ESTATE BE A BUNCH OF RENT RECEIPTS?
Is it not business to invest your earnings and keep them invested? Experience has proven that fortunes invested in real estate have remained intact through more generations than when invested in any other form of property.
For the head of the family the title to his home means the saving of rents and the possession of an asset constantly increasing in value. Values in real estate have been created by the growth of population. These are factors which tend to increase the demand for, and decrease the supply of real estate.

We are now building modern houses and will offer lots for sale with or without houses, in my new addition, corner of Church and Eighth streets. Streets will be improved by paving, cement walks, gas and water to property lines, no special taxes, all improvements are paid. When all improvements are made these houses and lots will soon sell and you will have lost another opportunity to better your condition.
Can you afford to let this opportunity pass?

AGED MAN
Struck by Interurban Car and May be Fatally Injured—Was Quite Dead.
Mr. W. Demonia, aged 88, who resides with a family named Houck at 11 James street, was struck by an interurban car at the corner of Pine and Maholm streets, West Newark, Thursday morning, and may have been internally injured. Owing to his advanced age, the outcome of the accident is feared.
Mr. Demonia has been employed at a general occupation at the Jewett Car works. His relatives all live in Chicago.

Thursday morning he was crossing Pine street at Maholm, and a number of interurban cars were passing at the time. When the first one passed the old gentleman, who is quite deaf, attempted to cross behind it, evidently not noticing the second car approaching. The car was brought almost to a stop before it struck the aged pedestrian, but he was quite painfully hurt below the knee of one leg. Dr. W. B. Nye, whose office and residence are both located at Pine and Maholm streets, examined the injured man, but, owing to his nervous condition from the shock, was unable to ascertain the exact extent of his injuries. Bowers & McCament's ambulance made a quick run to the physician's office and removed Mr. Demonia to his place of residence.

LARGEST CLASS GRADUATED IN YEARS

Class Day Exercises, Shepardson Alumnae Luncheon,

Granville, O., June 11.—The seventy-seventh annual commencement of Denison university was held in the Baptist church, this place, Thursday morning, and was one of the most successful in the history of the institution, fifty-one young people winning great praise for themselves and their instructors. It was one of the largest classes graduated in years.

DR. E. W. HUNT,
President of Denison University.

For several days past the college town has rapidly been filling up with strangers—friends of the college and parents of the graduates, coming from all parts of the United States, and consequently there are an unusually large number of people in the old college town.

At an early hour Thursday morning large crowds of people began wending their way to the Baptist church, and in a short time the spacious edifice was crowded to its utmost capacity with loving fathers and mothers of the graduates, their relatives and friends, who believed then, as never before, that any sacrifice they endured for the sake of their sons and daughters, were well worth the price paid.

The commencement marked the close of the most successful year ever experienced by the college. This is gratifying when we consider that it has the reputation of being among the best in the country. "This reputation is made by the students who have gone forth into new fields, where they have been forced to prove the kind of training that they received while in college here.

The stage was prettily decorated and when the curtain rose and there was presented the picture of handsome young men and charming young women, in the full bloom of health, a feeling of rapture pervaded the large audience. Besides the members of the class, Dr. E. W. Hunt, president of the university, and the members of the faculty, occupied seats on the stage.

Denison university under the able guidance of Dr. E. W. Hunt and the excellent faculty of the institution has won an enviable reputation among the educational institutions of the country. The attendance during the past year has been far greater than any other year and from a financial standpoint the institution has been especially favored.

At the conclusion of the program Dr. Hunt made the following announcements:

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

One of the most successful functions of the commencement season, and the one in which the most universal interest was shown was the annual reception given by Dr. E. W. Hunt, president of Denison university, and his capable wife, on Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of the president on College Hill. The spacious rooms, hospitably thrown open to the unusually large number of guests, were artistically decorated, and during the evening light refreshment were served. This was the last social event before the commencement exercises of the college.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS.

During the year 1908-9 the department of physics will be administered by Prof. C. D. Coons, who, through his five years of experience in the department is well qualified to assume the responsibility. He will teach the same courses as last year.

The courses usually taught by me will be in charge of Mr. J. S. Johnson. The trustees could have chosen a man who has just received his doctor's degree, but who is without experience. They preferred, however, to elect a man to the position whose work as student assistant qualifies him thoroughly. I concur most heartily in the decision of the trustees. Mr. Ernest Keil will go abroad about the middle of August. He will spend the year visiting the instrument shops of Europe.

C. W. CHAMBERLAIN.

SHEPARDSON ALUMNAE LUNCHEON.

The annual luncheon and reunion for all Shepardson alumnae was held Wednesday noon in the Shepardson dining hall. A dainty and elaborate luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. Altrogge by the Junior girls. Some two hundred alumnae and friends of the college were present and after luncheon repaired to the beautiful spacious parlors of Stone Hall where the following program was given:

Preserve Your Books

There is nothing so displeasing to the sense of taste as a well constructed library filled with books, the leaves projecting, covers half off, and possibly one-fourth of the contents of the book missing.

We Can Help You

If you will bring your books to us and let us make them as good as new, by fastening in the leaves and putting on new covers, it will not only help the appearance of the library, but will enhance the value of your books. Old books become more valuable as they grow older. Especially is this true of special editions and rare works.

It will make your books of reference more valuable, because you know that the entire book is in the proper place, with a good substantial binding, preserving the contents for future reference.

"It'll take more than two to win from us, boys," roared Harry Eells from the first base coaching line in the second inning after the Outcasts had shot their second runner across the plate, and Gygil went to bat for the Molders.

"Right, old kid," answered Gygil, as he landed on the nose of a single. "Now you're shouting," bellowed Sandy Murray, and he connected for another single sacker. "Well, I should say," answered Whitten as he bumped one for first and Gygil pounded home. "What did I tell you?" yelled Eells. Then when on an error of Whitten's Whitten tallied Eells smiled a self-satisfied smile, for a man that can guess the dope in base ball has a right to smile.

The former Springfield team started off with a rush and in the first inning score number one was chalked up for them. Likewise they registered again in the second, then they stopped and watched the Molders hike around the "hot and dusty."

A base on balls given Totman, a sacrifice by Burt, a hit by Bolannan and a sacrifice to deep center by

"DOC" ABBOTT.

The classy fielder of the Molders, who played wonderful ball in yesterday's game.

Spencer sent Totman across the rubber. Doom hit one out in the second and reached second on a sacrifice by LaRue. Louie heaved wild and Deoin scored. Whitten fled out to "Monday" Locke and Bony doubled. Bushelman was out on the third bunt strike.

Just to show Mr. Bushelman that he wasn't the whole horse on the heaving mound, the hitting of the Molders started in the second. As was previously stated, we mentioned and the fans were well.

Two bases on balls and a hit made things look bad in the third, and a fast double play by Whitten, Williams and Gygil put the H. H.'s to sleep. Then the torch rolled around and the Molders took a little more of their spirit out on the batters.

Whitten scored by walking and the ex-Totman took a four walk one, then he was out. Williams hit a sacrifice to Whitten and as the shortstop was there to take it, Williams' catch was a foul ball.

Whitten, each of the two, went to Whitten to take it on the muck, but when Williams' ball was out and on Bony he was out. Locke to Locke in a steady to the fan and waited while another quarter of high low and a deers passed him. Then he did one of the most unusual things that ever happened to him: the stole second while the crowd went wild. Snyder also drew a bunch of wild ones and tried and then Abbott, who started his work for the day, cracked out a double. Whitten and Locke scored but when Snyder tried it a little later, with Bushelman holding the ball he was through out at the plate.

Both sides settled down and the gun box was locked. Abbott played

DENISON COMMENCEMENT

Miss Barker's presentation of her life was most beautiful.

At 2 o'clock the more formal business meeting occurred, lasting till about 3:30, when the 1908 reunion of Shepardson alumnae came to a close.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

The class day program was given yesterday morning on the campus. Rev. B. G. Bowman of Wauson, gave the invocation, and the class quartet sang, after which Mr. Heater presented the shoe to the president of the incoming Senior class, Mr. Taylor. He responded happily to Mr. Heater's speech, and both engaged in a deal of good natured banter. Miss Anne Sorensen made some Shepardson announcements, after which Millard Lowery spoke, presenting to the Junior the Senior bench. Mr. C. W. Kemper made the response for the class of '09. Mr. C. F. Duerr spoke on behalf of the Sophomores, presenting an ivy vine which his classmates proceeded to plant at the east end of Marshall Hall. A class "saxette" then sang, after which a clever and humorous class prophecy was presented by Misses Beulah Rector and Marguerite Jones. The class memorial, a check for $175.00 to be used in buying books for the history department, was presented by J. Howard Maloney. Prof. Goodell, owing to illness, was unable to speak in acceptance of the gift. In conclusion the Denison song was sung.

A notable feature of the occasion was the serving of cool lemonade by the Freshmen.

COMMENCEMENT ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Among the interesting announcements to be made at today's commencement exercises, are the following:

The sundial presented by Mr. Ambrose Swazey of Cleveland has now been placed on the campus. It is unique in that it shows standard time instead of sun time, as such instruments usually do.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. Wilson, who had resigned from her position at the conservatory, has reconsidered her resignation and will remain at the head of the voice department. Miss Inez Winters will be her assistant. At her own request she will be relieved of the duties of acting dean. Mr. Carl Paige Wood has been made chairman of the conservatory faculty.

Mr. J. H. Cory, who was formerly a student at Denison, will render assistance in the English work in the academy.

Miss Ruth Jones, instructor in Latin in Shepardson, has decided to remain another year to fill the same position.

Miss Edith Stanton has resigned as treasurer of the college and secretary to the president and is going to the headquarters of the National Y. W. C. A. in New York City. Mr. Hopkins, the treasurer of the university, will also be treasurer of Shepardson.

Mr. Victor H. Hoppe of next year's Junior class, while carrying on his college work, is to give as much instruction as possible in public speaking. He will spend the summer to technical work at the University of Chicago.

Five members of the Senior class will be back next year to do graduate work and assist in various departments as follows: Miss Anne Sorensen in history, Miss Bertha Fetzler in Biology, Miss Olive Rusler in Geology, Theodore Johnson in Physics and Millard Lowery in English.

JUDGE HARMON AT GRANVILLE.

Judge Harmon, of Cincinnati, O., Democratic candidate for governor, is at Granville, for the commencement exercises.

The Judge is an alumnus of Denison, and naturally takes a great interest in the welfare of that institution, and rarely misses being present at the end of the school year.

The story of the Judge's graduation is quite interesting and the occasion was an episode in the history of the college. As the story goes, and told again by a former student at the seminary, there used to be a custom at graduating time for a number of students to get together and write a pamphlet, "Pasquin," in a facetious vein, commenting on the various peculiarities and personalities of the students of the graduating class. Some tolerably rough things were printed some times, and the paper was tabooed by the faculty, so it often became necessary if it was to be gotten out, to do the work under cover, and the pamphlets when printed were usually distributed by being thrown into the yards in the night time.

In '09, when the Judge was to graduate, he was suspected by one of the faculty of having something to do in getting the paper out, so his diploma was withheld for further investigation as to his part in the affair. In a few days, the faculty not being able to sustain their suspicions as to the Judge's culpability, tendered him his diploma, but he refused to receive it unless it were presented in public, and the faculty came to his terms.

On the day when the Judge received his diploma there was a wedding at the Baptist church, where the commencement exercises were held, and after the wedding service, a procession was formed with a brass band and the Judge leading, and all marched into the church, where the faculty

PRISONERS ARE ALMOST SMOTHERED DURING FIRE

Blaze Starts In Padded Cell at County Jail and Six Prisoners Released In Nick of Time

Heroic Firemen Rescue Harry Squires and Joe Smith---Origin of Fire a Mystery Though Suspicion Points to a Prisoner.

"For God's sake help! we're smothering!" was the cry that awakened Turnkey Calvin Christopher at the county jail last night at 11:30 o'clock. Sprung from his bed, Christopher located the cry and jumping in the elevator went to the third floor. Throwing the big steel door of the corridor open he was blinded by a burst of smoke and flame that came from the padded cell, the first in the north tier on that floor.

Unlocking the second door he ordered the prisoners from their cells and locked them in cells on the first and second floors. Realizing that the fire could not reach the women prisoners, but knowing they would be frightened, he released them from their cells on the fourth floor and locked them up on the lower floors. The promptness of Turnkey Christopher undoubtedly saved the unfortunate from being smothered to death.

Sheriff Redman, who resides in the front of the jail, sent in an alarm to the Central station and the wagons and men from the Central, North and East End companies responded. Hose was quickly laid and the fight against the fire commenced. Christopher then found but three of the six prisoners confined on the third floor were in the party he released, and he made a heroic attempt to fight his way to the cells occupied by Harry Squires and Joe Smith.

He was driven back by the flames and suffocating clouds of smoke and rushing to Chief Bausch he told him that two men were still in their cells. Ordering the water turned on the cell, the chief, Captain Williams and Fireman Hawkins fought their way through the fire and with great difficulty rescued Squires and Smith. Squires was unconscious and he was taken to the Sanitarium in the automobile of Dr. D. M. Smith.

Mr. "Con" Sullivan was among the first to arrive and rendered valuable assistance in rescuing prisoners. He probably saved the life of Eli Emsweller, one of the prisoners.

Joe Smith was made very ill by the dense smoke, but was not in any danger and was locked up in a lower cell. Besides Squires, who was just received at the jail to serve a sentence for assault on a policeman, and Smith who is doing time for harboring white women, the others confined on this floor were Ed. Wyckoff, assault; John Rid-nour, larceny; George Stotsburg, petit larceny; Eli Emsweller of Homer, serving a sentence for being drunk and disorderly.

Squires condition is serious, for he inhaled much smoke, but just what the result will be the authorities at the Sanitarium are not prepared to state. He is a very sick young man and it will be several days before he fully recovers from the effects of the fire.

Twenty-five prisoners in all were confined in the jail, and they were all frightened when the smoke reached their cells and water began to drench them. They were calmed by the firemen, who told them they were in absolutely no danger. The fire was confined to the cell and to the window frames of two windows but a few feet from the seat of the conflagration.

In order to accommodate the prisoners brought from the fourth floor, the patrol was loaded with eight prisoners and they were taken to the city prison and locked up until the floor could be cleaned and made ready for habitation again.

The origin of the fire is more or less of a mystery, but suspicion points strongly to a prisoner confined on the first floor and who is said to be insame. As all the cells are connected with a ventilator and a lighted paper put in the ventilator at the first floor would be carried upwards, it is possible that the fire originated in this manner.

Spontaneous combustion may also be responsible, for the padded cell has had no new excelsior in the padding since it was built, and the accumulation of dust may have caused the blaze. A burning match or a lighted cigarette or cigar butt may also have caused the fire. As all the prisoners claim to have been asleep and say that they were awakened by smoke, it is hardly possible they were the cause.

The damage done is estimated at $500, and it is fully covered by insurance. The prompt arrival of the firemen doubtless prevented a much heavier loss to life and property.

COMPLIMENTING THE HOSTESS

It is a great experience for the young hostess to be congratulated by her guests whenever they visit her table. There are so many pitfalls for the inexperienced provider that it is not surprising many of them are imposed upon and have table delicacies and other edibles of an inferior quality thrust upon them. And yet nothing can be more embarrassing than to have company to dinner or tea and be compelled to apologize for the poor quality of the tea, coffee, sugar, butter or any other article served at the table. It is at such times that the young housewife longs for good advice and guidance.

Shopping in the dress or millinery sense is an easy matter for the fair sex. It comes natural to them. But when it comes to purchasing groceries for home use with prudence and discrimination, it is another matter. There is quality, freshness, purity and price to be considered, sometimes a most perplexing blend of conditions to the new beginner in housekeeping. The best advice that could possibly be given to such--and to all providers for the home--is to trade at Conrad's and be sure of getting the best grocery values that money can buy.
